

Looking for the Best Claims Talent?

Questpro and Q TEMPS are full-service recruiting/staffing companies with industry expertise in insurance. Our specialists focus on a number of key industry sectors within insurance. Property & Casualty, Life & Health and Managed Care are just a few of our areas of expertise. QuestPro Consultants was founded in 1996 to help our clients find permanent talent, and in 2003 we established Q TEMPS for those temporary/contract needs. Since that time we have built a reputation for delivering the best of the best claims professionals for our clients.

The Services We Offer?

Because each recruiting assignment is unique in some way – the smallest detail makes the largest difference. Our full range of services vary from contingent, retained, temporary and temp-to-hire. We search and select the best candidate, bring them to our office where we conduct an interview, pc skills evaluation, license verification, background check, technical skills test, salary review, and then present them to our client for review. We provide great value and fast results to keep satisfied clients.

How Do We Operate?

We research thoroughly, we hunt widely, and we dig deeply. We consistently source for people. Our staff of recruiters, teamed with our four(4) full time researchers, who five days per week, eight(8) hours per day – FIND TALENTED PEOPLE. Our proprietary database of over 175,000 insurance professionals was not established via resume boards alone. We have a reputation of finding and delivering results for our clients and jointly those individuals that are seeking employment.

Our job is about people and our approach is personal. We assign one single point of contact that will work with you throughout the entire selection process. Both are equally important to our business. The key contact will get to know you, your company culture and the requirements needed for the right individual to become an invaluable solution to you and your managers.
